

OLIM Team Biographies

OLIM is a specialist investment management company founded in 1986. OLIM is solely focused on fund management with no conflicting business interests. The investment team, consisting of Andrew Impey, Simon Jaffé and Angela Lascelles, manages UK equities and balanced portfolios. All portfolios are managed jointly with each manager having responsibility for roughly one third of the UK market.

Andrew Impey

Director

Andrew is responsible for managing both equity and balanced portfolios at OLIM. He has over twenty five years' experience as a fund manager and has managed a broad range of funds. Prior to joining OLIM in 2009, Andrew was Chief Investment Officer at Singer & Friedlander Investment Management. In addition to his CIO responsibilities, Andrew managed the charity portfolios. Earlier in his career Andrew worked at Dresdner RCM, River and Mercantile Investment Management and Strauss Turnbull & Co specialising in UK small and mid cap equities.

Simon Jaffé

Director

Simon manages both equity and balanced portfolios at OLIM. He is a partner of Albion Ventures LLP. Simon began his investment career as an equity analyst in 1995 before becoming a fund manager in 1998. He spent six years at F&C where he managed a range of UK and pan-European portfolios for institutional clients. Immediately before joining OLIM, Simon co-managed the £4bn UK value fund at Morley. Simon holds a BSc(Econ.) 1st class and an MSc(Econ.) both from the LSE as well as an MSc in Finance with a Distinction from the LBS. He holds the IIMR qualification and is a member of the CFA Institute.

Angela Lascelles

Managing Director

Angela Lascelles co-founded OLIM in 1986. She has been professionally engaged in investment since graduating in philosophy from London University. She has worked for both the Associated British Foods and Courtaulds Pension Funds. At the latter she managed the UK and Overseas bond portfolios and a major part of the UK equity portfolio. Since the formation of OLIM she has focussed on managing equity portfolios. She is also responsible for our bond holdings.
